

Tavis Allison's Topic Sentences

Group 1

Economic incentives given to small businesses and landlord-owned apartments can effectively increase the sustainability of our cities.

Group 2

Funding this movie will fill a gap in movies for crime enthusiasts who like using their brains.

Group 3

A mental health curriculum in schools can save lives by reducing the incidence of suicidal thoughts and depression.

Group 4

Funding arts education can create more extensive arts classes.

Group 5

Providing service to low-income communities through the use of Help Centers and Promise Programs can be beneficial in positively impacting unemployment rates, crime rates, and family developmental outcomes. (no change from original)

Group 6

Empowering students can address the state of emergency at CUNY.

Group 7

Increased awareness of depression can improve everyone's mental and bodily health.

Group 8

Older students can help younger students succeed academically as other sources of support vanish.

Group 9

Simple subway reforms can improve deteriorating conditions at low cost.